JENNY & ELSIE

Animal Ref Code: G268 G269

About them:

These two lovely girls may be a little shy when you first meet them, but with time, patience and a calm environment, they'll begin to feel more comfortable in their new home. They take a little while to adjust to new routines and unfamiliar faces, so they'll need a family who understands that trust takes time.

Their favourite way to receive affection is through gentle chin scratches, and they may even tolerate a cuddle or two — especially if tasty snacks are involved!

A calm, quiet household similar to what they're used to would be ideal. A home without children, or with older children who understand how to handle guinea pigs gently and respectfully, would suit them best.

With a little patience, plenty of tasty treats and lots of gentle chin scratches, these girls will hopefully blossom into confident little companions.
