BENTLEY & HARLEY

Animal Ref Code: R285 & R286

About them:

Bentley and Harley are a wonderful bonded pair with two very different personalities that complement each other beautifully. They are both food-motivated, love exploring outdoors, and enjoy being around their people.

Bentley is the ultimate cuddle bunny. The moment you start petting him, he'll happily get comfortable and settle in for some attention. He's incredibly clever and learns tricks very easily. Bentley is also very calm and forgiving, making him a wonderfully easy-going companion.

Harley is the courageous and inquisitive one of the pair. She's always curious about what's going on and loves being involved in whatever you're doing. She's also very good at communicating her boundaries. If she's had enough of you being in her space, she'll simply push your hand away with her head — very politely, but very clearly.

Both Bentley and Harley are highly food motivated, which makes them enthusiastic participants when it comes to enrichment, training and treats.
