CRANBERRY

Animal Ref Code: R398

About them:

Cranberry is very bubbly little bunny, he loves exploring and seeing his carers when they walk in the door, even if he isn't getting a treat or it's not breakfast time.

He loves being picked up and cuddled and enjoys exploring. He is a little cuddly bear.

He does need a tall pen (120cm recommended) as he can easily escape lower pens when given the chance, he doesn't get up to much besides getting into the hay bales when he does escape though.

He is litter trained with a few stray poos out of the litter tray occasionally.

He loves to free roam and explore, no odd pees or nibbling on furniture at the moment. He hops around waiting to be picked up and loves cuddles.

Cranberry doesn't give much attention to his bunny neighbours, he currently does his own thing. But could bond well with another bunny.

He loves his breakfast, as he is still young his carer hasn't introduced veggies yet but he does love a treat of Timothy snacks and any dandelions, elderberry or blueberries.
