HADLEY

Animal Ref Code: R233

About them:

Hadley is a very sweet, beautiful and gentle rabbit with a calm and soothing presence.

She tends to be softly curious rather than bold or pushy and comes across as an easy companion to have in your home. She enjoys gentle interaction and is more of a relaxed observer than energetic explorer (though her confidence is still growing).

Hadley appreciates routine and calm handling, and is not demanding or highly reactive.

She enjoys quiet companionship, soft pats and predictable environments. She is alert to changes but not too frightened!

Hadley would do well with children, but they would need to respect that she prefers gentle affection, preferably from the ground.
