JERSEY

Animal Ref Code: G231

About them:

Jersey can be quite timid but when she thinks you're not looking she can be heard running laps of her cage and doing popcorns. She can be opinionated and has a very loud wheek to get your attention.

Jersey will settle in a cuddle sack, in a blanket or the sleeve of your hoodie but she does get frightened easily so a nice quiet home is where she will thrive.

Jersey i think would benefit from a friend or a home with other piggies close by that she can talk to. Shes very picky about who she is friends with.

She loves her hay and will demand more even after you have topped her up. We have been trying all new foods with her but she will eat them in her own time and not take it from our hands.
